

We're pleased to announce a new
Peer Support Group In Tucson, Arizona!

If any of the following statements apply to you, you may want to consider joining our support group:

- I'm feeling very lonely and isolated
- I have very few people to talk with about my infertility. No one understands.
- My husband/wife is the only one I have who provides emotional support.
- Infertility is affecting my work and career
- I feel that my life plan is out of control
- I'm having trouble navigating my medical treatment options
- I can't decide when 'enough is enough'
- Holidays and coping with family and friends are becoming more and more difficult

Our first meeting is Tuesday, April 16th, at the Oro Valley Public Library at 1305 W Naranja Drive, Oro Valley, Az, 85737 from 5pm to 7pm.

Denny and Lisa Ceizyk, 6 year veterans of infertility, will host the group. Couples are encouraged to come.

We plan to meet the 3rd Tuesday of every month at this location, but will keep you posted if the location and time changes.

For more information email dennyceizyk@almostafather.com.

Dates and times also can be found at:

<http://almostafather.com/events/>